Dear Hala,

Are you back at school now? I went back home to Sydney last week after a wonderful holiday. I went camping with my family and then I stayed with my friend, Jane, for two weeks.

We had a great time. We often walked in the parks and took pictures. One day we went to the museum. Is there one in Tripoli? Sometimes we went to the cinema in the evenings, but we usually stayed in and watched videos or played games. Everyone liked fish, so, for dinner, we often had fish cooked on a barbecue. What is your favourite food?

In my spare time, I like collecting photographs of countries around the world. I don’t have any of Libya. Can you send me some, please?

What did you do in the holidays? And what do you do in your spare time? Please write and tell me everything.

Bye for now,

A Listen, read and answer the questions.

Last Wednesday evening, my father asked, ‘What shall we do this weekend?’

‘Let’s go to El-Kouf,’ I said. ‘You can see lots of birds there.’

‘Oh, Muna. You always want to look at birds,’ my brother Ahmad said. ‘It’s boring.’

‘No, it’s a good pastime,’ my father said.

We went to El-Kouf on Thursday evening. My father and mother stayed in the car and Ahmad and I walked along the beach. The water was full of birds. It was wonderful. There were hundreds of them. I took out my binoculars. I wanted to see them better.

A strange bird. It was standing alone, eating a fish. It was bigger than the others. It had white feathers, but there were some black feathers on its wings. Its beak – birdwatchers say ‘bill’ – was red and its legs were red too. ‘Ahmad, quick! Take a photo of that big bird,’ I said. Suddenly, as I was watching the bird, a boat came by and the bird flew off. I could see black and white patterns on its wings. What was it?

A white stork.

At home, I looked in my books and magazines about birds. There it was! ‘The white stork’. I felt very excited. It was the first time I had seen one! And I had a photograph of it!

Lesson 6: Different Schools

A Read and answer the questions.

One afternoon, Yassir was playing in the park. It was December and it was windy. Another boy was playing on a skateboard. He was playing alone. He was not from Libya.

‘Hello,’ said Yassir. ‘My name’s Yassir. Where are you from?’
The other boy was from England and his name was Simon. ‘My father works in Tripoli,’ he said.
‘I’m on holiday here.’
‘On holiday!’ said Yassir.
‘Don’t you go to school?’
‘Yes,’ said Simon, ‘but we have holidays now.’
‘Holidays in December!’ said Yassir.

Simon explained. There are three terms in the school year in England – the autumn term, the spring term and the summer term. The students have a fortnight’s holiday at Christmas and two weeks’ holiday in spring. They also have six weeks’ holiday in summer. The school year begins in September.

‘And we have one week’s holiday in the middle of each term. That’s called a half-term holiday,’ Simon added. ‘What about you?’

‘We don’t have terms. We have semesters,’ Yassir began. ‘Some of our holidays are at the same time every year. Independence Day, for example. But other holidays are at different times every year. Eid Alfitr, for example.’

‘What’s Eid Alfitr?’ asked Simon.

2. What’s Ramadan?
3. In Ramadan, we fast during the day, from dawn to dusk.
4. What’s Eid Alfitr?
5. ...?
6. We break our fast after sunset.
7. First we pray.
8. Eid mubarak!

B Listen and look at the pictures. Work out the meaning of these words:

festival fast dawn dusk break our fast sunset pray

C Now do Exercises A to C on page 24 of the Workbook.
Lesson 8: New Year’s Day in London

A  Listen and read Yassir’s story and answer the questions.

I’ll never forget January the first. I was in London with my parents and older sister, Hala. We wanted to go on the London Eye. That’s a big wheel that takes you up in the air above London. It is 135 metres high and is next to the River Thames. People say that the view from the top is fantastic. You can see all over London - and London is over 80 kilometres wide.

We went out after breakfast. It was cloudy and cold. There were not many people in the street because the evening before was New Year’s Eve, the last day of the old year. On New Year’s Eve, people there have a party. They visit friends or walk round the streets. At midnight, they hold hands and sing a special song. They go to bed late.

At the London Eye, we got into one of the cabins. As the door closed, it started to snow.

‘Look, Hala! It’s snowing!’ I shouted.

We started to go up and up. As we went higher and higher, the snow got thicker and thicker. When we reached the top, we could see nothing but snow. We could not see the ground. We could not see the famous view. Only snow. We were in a white cloud.

‘Are you frightened, Hala?’ I asked.

‘No,’ she said. ‘Are you?’

I said nothing. Mum and Dad said nothing. The wheel turned slowly and took us back to the ground. It was still snowing. It snowed all day. No, I’ll never forget New Year’s Day in London!

‘No, Dad,’ said Khalid.

He put the key round his neck on some string. They sailed out to sea and Uncle Waled and Khalid’s father started fishing.

Khalid put the key round his neck.

‘I’ve caught one!’ said Uncle Waled.

‘Me too,’ said Khalid’s father. They both caught two more. Then...

‘Help! Quickly, Khalid. Help me. This one is huge!’

Khalid helped his father pull the huge fish into the boat.

‘OK,’ said Uncle Waled. ‘That’s enough fish. Let’s go back.’

They sailed back to the beach. Khalid’s father said, ‘The key, please, Khalid.’

Khalid helped his father pull the huge fish into the boat.

Khalid put his hand to his neck. ‘It’s gone! The key’s gone! I’ve lost it,’ he said. ‘Oh, no!’

They looked inside the boot and on the beach. They looked in the sand near the car. The key wasn’t there.

‘I’m sorry, Dad,’ said Khalid. ‘I’m very sorry.’

‘All right, Khalid. Don’t worry,’ said his father. ‘I have another key at home.’

Perhaps the fish has eaten it,’ said Uncle Waled. They all laughed.

‘Right, let’s go home,’ said Waled.

‘We’ll come back for your car tomorrow.’

Khalid’s mother was very pleased with the big fish. ‘I’ll cook it for dinner,’ she said. ‘Can you cut it up, please, Khalid?’

‘Yes, Mum,’ said Khalid sadly.

The monkey stayed near the door. It was very thin.

‘It’s starving,’ said Mr Saif. ‘It wants some food.’

Suddenly the monkey jumped up onto their table and grabbed a burger from Mr Saif’s plate.

‘Hey! Stop that!’ he shouted.

The monkey leapt over to another table and grabbed some salad. All the waiters chased the monkey, but they could not catch it. It knocked over a table and all the drinks spilled onto the floor. ‘I’m doing my homework, Mum,’ said Sarah. ‘I’ve nearly finished.’ Sarah finished her work.

‘Right,’ she thought. ‘That’s that. I’ve done all my homework. Now I’ll play my new computer game – Moon Rocket.’ She picked up the disk and put it into the computer. The game was all about space and Sarah had to fly to the moon in a rocket.

Sarah’s rocket took off and flew up into space. Then suddenly … Danger left! A monster! Click on the mouse! Sarah clicked on the mouse. Good. Danger right! A meteor!

‘Quick!’ Sarah thought. ‘Use the keyboard!’ Bang! Go on!

Then a voice said, ‘Answer the question.’ A question appeared on the screen and Sarah read it.

Which is the biggest planet?
A Earth
B Jupiter
C Saturn

‘Click on B,’ thought Sarah. There were more monsters, more meteors and more questions. Finally, these words – Congratulations! You can land on the moon.

Lesson 1: Making New Friends

A  Read the email and answer the questions.

From: Yuki Ono
To: Fawzi Tahir
Subject: Would you like to be my new friend?
Date: 12th April

Dear Fawzi,

I read your name in a magazine. Would you like to be my pen-friend? I hope so. I am a Japanese boy and I am thirteen years old. As you can see, I live in a small town called Soma. My house is very near the sea. My favourite pastimes are fishing and collecting stamps.

What is Libya like? Japan is not very big, but it is very beautiful. There are a number of large cities as well as small towns and villages. We have many mountains, rivers and lakes. Japan is very green because it rains a lot in summer. The wettest month is September. In winter it is very cold and sometimes it snows.

Would you like to visit Japan one day? There are lots of interesting things to see and do. For example, you can visit Disneyland, go to a baseball match or learn to do judo. You can also visit lovely gardens or go to see a traditional Japanese play.

Please write and tell me all about yourself and your country.

Yours,
Yuki Ono

John Harper, a Canadian, was flying his small plane. With him were his wife, Clare, and his two children, Lucy, aged four and Ben, aged nine. They were flying over a forest. Suddenly, the engine stopped.

‘What’s the matter? Why has the engine stopped?’ asked Clare.

‘I don’t know,’ said John. He tried to start it again, but nothing happened.

‘It’s no good,’ said John. ‘It won’t start. We’re going down.’

John was lucky. He found a clear place between the trees and landed the plane. Nobody was hurt. They climbed out and looked around.

‘Where are we?’ asked Clare.

‘I don’t know,’ answered John.

‘Well, we can’t stay here,’ said Clare.

‘Which way do we go?’

‘Hey, Dad! Look!’ said Ben. He pointed to some trees. ‘There’s a big dog up there near the trees.’

‘That’s not a dog. It’s a wolf,’ said John.

‘Is it dangerous?’ asked Clare.

‘No,’ said John. ‘Wolves don’t hurt people.’

The wolf came towards them, then moved away, came towards them again and moved away again.

‘I think he wants us to follow him,’ said Ben.

‘Well, I don’t know where we are. Maybe he does,’ said John. ‘Let’s follow him.’

They followed the wolf through the trees. Every now and again, the wolf stopped, looked at them and then moved off again. After about two hours, they came to a road. Just off the road was a village.

‘Thank God,’ said John. ‘We can phone from the village.’

‘Dad, where’s the wolf?’ asked Ben.

‘Hang on, Dave,’ shouted Tom. ‘I’m coming!’ Tom reached Dave and pulled him over to the upturned boat. They held onto the boat and waited for help.

About three hours later, they heard a noise and looked up. There was a coastguard helicopter in the sky above them. They sat there, cold and wet, wrapped in blankets.

‘Thanks, Tom,’ said Dave. ‘You saved my life.’

4. Which countries are they from? What do names of countries begin with?

My name is Pana. I’m looking for a pen-friend. I’d like her to be a girl like myself, but a little bit older. I’m eleven and I’m Canadian. Our country is very big, but not many people live here. Maybe that’s because the winters are very, very cold. I like taking photographs. In fact, it’s my main pastime. Last winter I took a photograph of a polar bear. I’m sending it to the magazine. I hope they print it.

I’m Josh. I live in California on the south-west coast of America. I’m thirteen years old. I’d like a pen-friend anywhere in the world, boy or girl. I like riding the waves on my surfboard. When I’m not doing that, I meet my friends at the Mall. I also like cars, but I’m too young to drive. I can’t wait until I’m sixteen. Please write to me or, if you have a computer, send me an email.

I’m a fourteen-year-old girl from Delhi, the capital of India. My name is Nasreen. I’d like a pen-friend from anywhere in the world. My pastimes are listening to music, collecting stamps and growing flowers in the garden. When I grow up, I want to be a doctor. I also want to travel to other parts of the world.

Surfing the Net

My name is Hans. I live in Munich, a city in Germany. I have four sisters, two older than me and two younger. I’m thirteen and I’m the only boy in the family. When I’m not at school, I spend a lot of time on my computer, playing computer games and surfing the internet. I also spend a lot of time in the kitchen because I like cooking. Please write to me or, if you have a computer, send me an email.

A Look at the pictures, answer the questions and talk about your ideas. Then read quickly and check.

I usually go on holiday to a different area of my country, Libya, that I’ve never been to before. However, last summer, I went to Egypt. It was a holiday I’ll never forget!

One day, I was driving my car high up in the mountains. When I saw a parking place, I stopped the car and got out to look at the view. I walked to the edge of the road and looked down into the valley below. The view was lovely. I was enjoying the scenery and the quiet, when I heard a dog barking. The next thing I knew, a huge dog was rushing at me. I stepped back, of course, and suddenly I was falling, falling down the hillside. Over and over I rolled, hitting rocks, stones and trees. I tried to stop myself, but the hill was too steep. I just fell faster and faster.

‘This is it,’ I thought. ‘I’ll be dead soon.’ Then everything went black.

---

When I opened my eyes, I was in agony. My head, my legs, my back — every part hurt. And I was moving! Two men were carrying me. ‘Where am I?’ I asked. ‘Where are we going?’

‘Calm down! Calm down!’ said one of the men.

‘Where are you taking me?’ I shouted.

‘To hospital,’ said the other man.

‘Oh, great!’ I thought. My head hurts. And my arm. In fact, every bit of me hurts. The hospital! The hospital! Sounds like …’ Everything went black again.

---

Is he dead?

---

Where is he going? What do you think happens next?

1. How do you think the man felt after being rescued?
2. Find a reflexive pronoun.
3. Find an adjective.
4. Find an adverb.
5. Find another expression for ‘in pain’.

B Talk about your ideas. Then read the rest of the story in your Workbook.

C Now do Exercises A to E on page 93 of the Workbook.

Planning your work
☐ Read the question carefully. Underline the important parts. Do you understand it? If it is not clear, then ask your teacher.
☐ Brainstorm as many ideas as you can of what you are going to write about. Write them down as a list or mind map.
☐ Look up any vocabulary that you are unsure of.
☐ Select the ideas you want to use and delete any that are not relevant. You don’t have to use everything.
☐ Put your ideas into a logical order and group ideas that go together in sections.
☐ If you can, find a model text and look at the style and layout. Are there any phrases or vocabulary that you can adapt for your own work? (Be careful not to copy chunks of the model text without changing it though.)
☐ Think about who you are writing for and decide on the style and layout. For example, if you are writing a letter to a friend, the style will be different to a formal letter and the layout will be different to a story.

Writing and revising your work
☐ Use the ideas from your planning to write the first draft. Don’t worry too much about accuracy or choosing the right words.
☐ Remember to start a new paragraph every time you move on to a new idea or topic.
☐ Read through your first draft and check that you have answered the question correctly.
☐ Decide if you want to delete, change or add any more ideas.
☐ Decide whether you want to change the paragraphing or the order of the ideas.
☐ Check that you have linked your ideas using connecting words and phrases (e.g., first, next, then, etc).
☐ Write a second draft more carefully and slowly. Make sure your writing is clear.

Editing your work
☐ Read through your work. Check you have answered the question correctly, every sentence is clear, the grammar is correct, you have used suitable vocabulary and linking words, the spelling is correct. (Check with a dictionary.)
☐ Show your work to your family or a friend and see if they can help you edit it.
☐ Editing tip: You could try reading the text in reverse order, starting with the final sentence and working backwards to the first sentence. This will stop you being distracted by the content and allow you to focus on technical details.

Unit 1

Track 1

Listen and check.

Ahmad: Did you go away in the holidays?
Faisal: Yes, I went to a village by the sea.
Ahmad: What did you do there?
Faisal: Oh, I went swimming every day. And I went fishing. It was great!
Rasha: Did you go away in the holidays?
Huda: No, Muna and I stayed at home.
Rasha: What did you do all the time?
Huda: Oh, lots of things. I saw my friends every day. And I made some clothes.
Rasha: And what did you do, Muna?
Muna: Not very much. I got up late every day. And I read lots of books. Oh, and I learned to cook.

Track 2

Listen and number the photos in the order Joe talks about them.

I visited Spain with my family two years ago. I took lots of photos as we saw lots of things. We spent a week in Barcelona and we saw a lot of nice buildings. But my favourite place was Park Guell. There are sculptures and statues covered with mosaics – tiny pieces of stone. And I loved the buildings. There were some really amazing buildings! I took lots of photos there. I want to go back to Barcelona again one day.

One spring, we visited Pisa in Italy. Of course, we saw the famous Leaning Tower of Pisa. I thought it was great – a building that leans. It was built in the 12th century and started leaning right away because the ground it was on was too soft to support it! I wonder if it will fall down one day?

Last year, we visited Libya. We went to the historical site, Leptis Magna. A long time ago, this was one of the most beautiful cities of the Roman Empire. It's still beautiful today. It's famous as the birthplace of Septimius Severus, who later became Emperor of Rome in 193 AD. Today you can still see the forum, marketplaces and huge amphitheatre, all in great condition.

I went to London with my parents three years ago. There is so much to see there. It took lots of pictures by my favourite is this one of Big Ben. I always thought Big Ben was the name of the clock, but it's the name of the large bell inside. It was interesting to hear from the guide all about the history of Big Ben. The bell weighs more than 13 tons and it was the biggest bell in the UK for a long time!

I was quite young when I went to Egypt with my parents and saw the pyramids. In fact the photo was taken by my father. I think the pyramids are fantastic. I don't understand how people built them over three thousand years ago. People must have been very clever in the old days. Lots of photos of the pyramids show just two or three big pyramids, but there are more than 100 in all.

The most exciting place I have visited is the Victoria Falls in Zimbabwe. I've never seen anything as exciting in my life. The water drops down the falls for over 100 metres. And the noise the water makes is really loud! I loved standing and listening to the sound.

Track 3

Listen to people talking about learning languages. Mark the sentences true or false.

Maysam: I'm Maysam. In my spare time, I like finding out about other countries. I have lots of pictures and stamps. I ask everyone to keep their stamps for me. Scrapbook 3 is mine.

Adel: I'm Adel. Some day, I want to go to Kenya. Then I can take my own photos of the animals. For now, I have to look for pictures and cut them out. Scrapbook 6 is mine.

Waleed: I'm Waleed. I want to be a pilot. I'm very interested in planes and flying, so you can guess what I collect. Scrapbook 4 is mine.

Amna: I'm Amna. I enjoy collecting pictures of plants and flowers from around the world. I love the colours and shapes. Scrapbook 1 is mine.
Muna: I’m Muna. I’m interested in birds. In my spare time, I take photos. Then I try to find out the names of the birds. Scrapbook 2 is mine.
Jamil: I’m Jamil. I play it. I watch it on television. I go to matches. So you know whose pictures I collect. Scrapbook 5 is mine.

Listen and check your answers.

Track 10

Listen, read and find out.

Last Wednesday evening, my father asked, "What shall we do this weekend?"
"Let’s go to El-Kouf," I said. "You can see lots of birds there."
"Oh, Muna. You always want to look at birds," my brother Ahmad said. "It’s boring."
"No, it’s a good pastime," my father said.
We went to El-Kouf on Thursday evening. My father and mother stayed in the car and Ahmad and I walked along the beach. The water was full of birds. It was wonderful. There were hundreds of them. I took out my binoculars. I wanted to see them better.

"What can you see, Muno?" Ahmad asked.

I could see lots of ducks and some small birds. Then I saw a strange bird. It was standing alone, eating a fish. It was bigger than the others. It had white feathers, but there were some black feathers on its wings. Its beak – birdwatchers say "bill" – was red and its legs were red too. "Ahmad, quick! Take a photo of that big bird," I said. Suddenly, as I was watching the bird, a boat came by and the bird flew off. I could see black and white patterns on its wings. What was it?

At home, I looked in my books and magazines about birds. There it was! The white stork. I felt very excited. It was the first time I had seen one! And I had a photograph of it!

Father: Ah – Eid Alfitr. Well, first of all, do you know about the holy month of Ramadan?
Simon: No, I’m afraid I don’t.
Father: Ramadan is the name of the month when Muslims fast. We don’t eat or drink anything in the daytime. We fast from dawn when the sun rises until dusk when the sun sets. Even the restaurants are closed. No cafes. Nothing.
Simon: Isn’t that difficult?
Father: No, not really. All Muslims are happy to do it because we are doing what Allah tells us to do. And it’s good for us – it isn’t a good idea to eat too much.
Simon: Don’t you eat at all?
Father: Oh, yes. We eat when the sun goes down. But I remember once I was in England during Ramadan. And it was summer when the days are very long in England. We had to fast for a long time – from five o’clock in the morning until half past nine at night. And it was very hot and sunny. That was a bit difficult.
Simon: Wow, yes! But, er, what’s Eid Alfitr?
Father: Oh, yes. Sorry. Eid Alfitr is a festival at the end of Ramadan. It is when we can break our fast and eat and drink again in the daytime.
Simon: And what do you do? Do you have a party?
Father: No, not really. I’ll start at the beginning of the day. First, we pray. Then we usually go out and give money or presents to poor people. We visit friends and our relatives. We say ‘Eid Mubarak’.
Simon: Eid Mubarak?
Father: Oh, … ‘Happy Eid,’ I suppose in English. It’s a very happy time.
Simon: Thank you for explaining. It was very interesting.
Father: Not at all.

Track 18
Listen and draw.

I come from a small country called Abouilia – A-B-O-U-L-I-A. It is an island. It is like a circle. There are mountains in the centre of the island. There is a river called the Deek – D-E-E-K – from the mountains in the southeast. There is a large lake on the river. The capital city, Jenna – that’s J-E-N-N-A – is on the west of the lake. There is another city, called Sardet – S-A-R-D-E-T – on the east coast.

Simon: What’s Eid Alfitr?
Father: Eid Alfitr. Listen and look at the pictures.

Yassir: My father will tell you. Come and meet him. (footsteps) Dad, this is Simon. From England.
Father: How do you do?
Simon: How do you do?
Yassir: Simon wants to know about Eid Alfitr, Dad.
Track 21

Listen, read and find out.

I’ll never forget January the first. I was in London with my parents and older sister, Hala. We wanted to go on the London Eye. That’s a big wheel that takes you up in the air above London. It is 135 metres high and is next to the River Thames. People say that the view from the top is fantastic. You can see all over London – and London is over 80 kilometres wide.

We went out after breakfast. It was cloudy and cold. There were not many people in the street because the evening before was New Year’s Eve, the last day of the old year. On New Year’s Eve, people have a party. They visit friends or walk round the streets. At midnight, they hold hands and sing a special song. They go to bed late.

At the London Eye, we got into one of the cabins. As the door closed, it started to snow. ‘Look, Hala! It’s snowing,’ I shouted.

We started to go up and up. As we went higher and higher, the snow got thicker and thicker. When we reached the top, we could see nothing but snow. We could not see the ground. We could not see the famous view. Only snow. We were in a white cloud.

‘Are you frightened, Hala?’ I asked.
‘No,’ she said. ‘Are you?’
I said nothing. Mum and Dad said nothing. The wheel turned slowly and took us back to the ground. It was still snowing. It snowed all day. No, I’ll never forget New Year’s Day in London!

Track 22

Sing a song.

I’ve cleaned the windows and washed the floor. I’ve swept the path and painted the door.
Is there anything else you want me to do?
I’ve finished my work and want something new.
I’ve tidied my garden and watered the plants.
I’ve talked to my uncles and talked to my aunts.
Is there anything else you want me to do?
I’ve finished my work and want something new.

Track 23

Mrs Archer: Have you washed the vegetables?
Gwen: Yes, I have. And I’ve put them in a bowl.
Mrs Archer: Thank you, Gwen.
Gwen: And I’ve cooked the chicken.
Mrs Archer: Thank you, Gwen. You’re a very good girl. Here’s your pocket money. You can go to the shops.
Gwen: Thank you, Mummy.

Mr Archer: Have you watered the garden, Len?
Len: No, I haven’t. Sorry.
Mr Archer: Have you tidied your room?
Len: No, I haven’t.
Mr Archer: Have you washed the car?
Len: No, I haven’t.

Zaynab: Dad phoned. He’s bought me a new computer.

Noora: Somebody has drunk all the lemonade.

The fox saw some meat under the bird’s foot. ‘Can I have some meat, please?’ he asked politely. ‘I’m very, very hungry. I haven’t eaten today.’ ‘No, you can’t. It’s mine,’ said the bird. The fox thought for a minute. ‘Um – have you sung today?’ asked the fox slowly. ‘I haven’t heard you. They tell me you can sing very well.’ ‘That’s right,’ said the bird. ‘Sing for me, please,’ said the fox. ‘All right,’ said the bird, and began to sing. ‘You sing beautifully,’ said the fox. ‘Can you sing from that tree?’ ‘Thank you,’ said the bird, and flew up to the tree. The fox picked up the meat quickly and ran away, laughing loudly.

Track 26

Once upon a time ... Listen and read.

Once upon a time there was a young shepherd. He was looking after his sheep in a field near a small village. And he was very bored.

‘I’ve done nothing all day,’ he thought. ‘I’ve walked round this field ten times and I’m bored.’ Then he had an idea. He ran into the village. ‘I’ve just seen a wolf,’ he shouted. ‘It has eaten one of my sheep.’ The men of the village ran to the field. But the sheep were eating happily and there was no wolf. The shepherd laughed loudly.

‘That’s not funny,’ one of the men said angrily. The next day, the shepherd did the same thing. ‘Help! Help!’ he shouted. ‘A wolf has eaten one of my sheep. Come quickly.’ ‘Oh, no! Not again,’ said one of the men. ‘But we have to go,’ said another. And they ran to the field. Again the sheep were eating happily. There was no wolf.

The shepherd did this the next day and the next day. On the fifth day, he was watching his sheep again when he saw a wolf. It had huge white teeth. It took one of his sheep. He ran to the village, shouting, ‘Help! Help! The wolf! It’s just taken one of my sheep.’ ‘Oh no. Not this time. We don’t believe you,’ said one of the men of the village. ‘But it’s true,’ said the shepherd.

The man spoke again. ‘We do not believe you,’ he said slowly and angrily. ‘Go away.’ The shepherd went back to the field. All his sheep were dead. He sat down on a stone and cried sadly.
Track 28

Read the story and answer the questions.

One day Khalid went fishing with his father. When they got to the beach, Uncle Waleed’s car was already there. He was waiting for them on his boat. Khalid’s father gave Khalid the car key. ‘Look after this, please, Khalid,’ he said. ‘I’ll be busy. Don’t lose it.’

‘No, Dad,’ said Khalid.

He put the key round his neck on some string. They sailed out to sea and Uncle Waleed and Khalid’s father started fishing.

‘I’ve caught one!’ said Uncle Waleed.

‘Me too,’ said Khalid’s father. They both caught two more. Then ...

‘Help! Quickly, Khalid. Help me. This one is huge!’ Khalid helped his father pull the huge fish into the boat.

‘OK,’ said Uncle Waleed. ‘That’s enough fish. Let’s go back.’

They sailed back to the beach.

Khalid’s father said, ‘The key, please, Khalid.’ Khalid put his hand to his neck. ‘It’s gone! The key’s gone! I’ve lost it,’ he said. ‘Oh, no!’ They looked inside the boat and on the beach. They looked in the sand near the car. The key wasn’t there.

‘I’m sorry, Dad,’ said Khalid. ‘I’m very sorry.’

‘All right, Khalid. Don’t worry,’ said his father. ‘I have another key at home.’

Perhaps the fish has eaten it,’ said Uncle Waleed. They all laughed.

‘Right, let’s go home,’ Waleed said. ‘We’ll come back for your car tomorrow.’

Khalid’s mother was very pleased with the big fish. ‘I’ll cook it for dinner,’ she said. ‘Can you cut it up, please, Khalid?’

‘Yes, Mum,’ said Khalid sadly.

‘Khalid, don’t worry,’ said his father. ‘It was only a car key. Now cut up the fish.’

Khalid was cutting up the fish when suddenly, he stopped. ‘Dad! Dad!’ he shouted. ‘I’ve found something!’

Taher: I’ve no idea. Yesterday afternoon in the Mall, I think.

Ahmad: What did you want to get him?

Taher: A model plane, of course. What do you think?

Ahmad: I’ve just bought him a model plane.

Taher: I can’t get him anything now.

I've been to England and I've been to France,

I've been to America and I've been to Japan,
What about you?

I've been to India and I've been to Oman,
I've also been to Spain.
I've been to Africa and I've been to Wales,
But now I'm home again.

I've been in a rocket and I've been on a boat,
I've also been in a plane.
I've been round the world and I've been to the moon,
But now I'm home again.

I've been to the mountains and I've been to the lake,
I've also been to the sea.
I'm going to the beach and I'm going to the farm,
Are you coming with me?

Go and look in the forests for the birds of paradise – the birds of many colours. You won't believe what you see! Go walking in the mountains and visit some of our many old temples. Stay on farms where they grow pepper, coffee and rubber trees. Did you know that one of the world's biggest mosques is in Indonesia? It's huge. Fifty thousand people can pray there. Have you ever seen an ape? The 'man of the woods' – a big monkey with long red hair. It lives in the trees of our hot, wet rainforests. Come and see the ape – at home. Volcanoes! Indonesia is famous for them! The most famous is Mount Rinjani. Have you ever been to Indonesia? You haven't? Now is the time.

Track 34

Listen, read and answer the questions.

Sarah was working on her computer in her bedroom. Her mother shouted from the hall. 'Sarah, what are you doing? Your favourite programme is on TV at 8 o'clock.' 'I'm doing my homework, Mum,' said Sarah. I've nearly finished.' Sarah finished her work. 'Right,' she thought. 'That's that. I've done all my homework. Now I'll play my new computer game – Moon Rocket.' She picked up the disk and put it into the computer. The game was all about space and Sarah had to fly to the moon in a rocket. Sarah's rocket took off and flew up into space. Then suddenly ... Danger left! A monster! Click on the mouse! Sarah clicked on the mouse. Good. Danger right! A meteor!
'Quick!', Sarah thought. 'Use the keyboard!' Bang! Go on!
Then a voice said, 'Answer the question.' A question appeared on the screen and Sarah read it. Which is the biggest planet? A Earth, B Jupiter, C Saturn.'Click on B,' thought Sarah.
There were more monsters, more meteors and more questions. Finally, these words – Congratulations! You can land on the moon. Sarah's rocket landed on the moon very slowly. Then Sarah saw pictures of the moon on her screen. There were dead volcanoes and huge deserts. A very long way away, Sarah saw Earth – our home.
'That was fun,' Sarah thought, and turned the computer off. She went down to the sitting room to watch TV.
'Sarah, where have you been?' asked her father. It's 10 o'clock. You've missed your favourite TV programme.
'Oh, dear,' said Sarah. 'Never mind, Dad. I've been to the moon instead!' Sarah's father was confused. He smiled at Sarah then carried on reading his book.

Unit 6

Track 35

Fawzi and his father are talking. Listen and complete the sentences.

Dad: Fawzi! Good news!
Fawzi: What's that, Dad?
Dad: I'm going to Japan – to Tokyo.
Fawzi: When?
Dad: In seven weeks from now.
Fawzi: Oh, Dad. Can I come with you? Please?
Dad: I thought you might ask me that. Yes, you can come.
Fawzi: Wait a minute. Yuki doesn't live in Tokyo. I won't be able to meet him.
Dad: Maybe Yuki can come to Tokyo.
Fawzi: Yes, I hope so. I'll write and tell him straight away. What date will we travel?
Dad: On the 17th.
Fawzi: And how long will we be in Japan?
Dad: Twelve days.

Fawzi: Twelve days. Great! Which airline will we fly on?
Dad: Afriqiyah Airways, of course. If they fly to Japan.
Fawzi: How long will the flight take?
Dad: I'm not sure. About seven hours, I suppose. We'll find out when I get the tickets. Just calm down and get on with writing to Yuki.
Fawzi: Yes, yes. I'll do it right now.

Track 36

Fawzi wrote to Yuki and, two weeks later, he had a reply. Now Fawzi is telling his father about Yuki's email.

Fawzi: Dad. I got an email from Yuki this morning.
Dad: What does he say?
Fawzi: He says that he and his family will be in Tokyo when we are there. Isn't that fantastic?
Dad: Yes, it is.
Fawzi: And he says that his father and his mother will meet us at Tokyo airport. And he'll be at the airport, too.
Dad: Oh, that's good. I've never been to Japan you know.
Fawzi: He wants me to stay with him. At his uncle's house. He says you can stay too, Dad.
Dad: Well, that is kind of them. But I'll stay in a hotel because I have business to do. Remember, I won't be on holiday. I have to work. But you can stay with them. I'll write and thank Yuki's parents for their invitation. And you can start thinking about what clothes you'll need.
Fawzi: Oh, clothes! I didn't ask Yuki what I'll need. What do you think, Dad?
Dad: I don't know! Find out what the weather will be like. And ask Yuki what you will be doing – where you'll be going. Just don't take too much. You'll have to carry your own bag.
Fawzi: Okay, dad. Oh, just one thing – I want to take Yuki a present. What shall I get him?
Track 37
Fawzi meets Yuki. Yuki and Fawzi meet for the first time.

Yuki: Hello. Are you Fawzi?
Fawzi: Yes. And you must be Yuki. Hello.

Fawzi introduces Fawzi and his father to his father.

Yuki: This is my father. Dadi, this is Mr Salim and this is Fawzi.
Fawzi: How do you do, sir?
Mr Ono: How do you do? You are very welcome.

Track 38
Listen and read.

Mrs Ono: Come and eat, Fawzi. Are you hungry?
Fawzi: Yes, I am. But where do I sit?
Yuki: We don’t sit on chairs when we eat. We kneel on the floor, like this.
Fawzi: I see. We sit on the floor in my house.

Mrs Ono: Let’s eat then.
Fawzi: What are these?
Yuki: Chopsticks. In Japan we always eat with chopsticks.
Fawzi: Oh! In my country we usually eat with knives, forks and spoons.

Fawzi: It’s harder with chopsticks.
Yuki: You’ll learn.
Fawzi: Or I’ll be hungry!

Fawzi: This is very nice fish. How do you cook it?
Mrs Ono: We don’t cook it. This is raw fish. We eat it with a sauce.
Fawzi: Really! At home my mother always cooks the fish.

Track 40
Listen, read and answer the questions.

John Harper, a Canadian, was flying his small plane. With him were his wife, Clare, and his two children, Lucy, aged four and Ben, aged nine. They were flying over a forest. Suddenly, the engine stopped.

‘What’s the matter? Why has the engine stopped?’ asked Clare.

‘I don’t know,’ said John.

He tried to start it again, but nothing happened. ‘It’s no good,’ said John. ‘It won’t start. We’re going down.’

John was lucky. He found a clear place between the trees and landed the plane. Nobody was hurt. They climbed out and looked around.

‘Where are we?’ asked Clare.
‘I don’t know,’ answered John.

Track 41

Listen and read.

Mazin has a shop near the sea in Tobruk. When people want to go fishing, they can buy or hire everything they need in his shop. Khalid and Ahmad are going fishing. They are in Mazin’s shop.

Ahmad: Hi, Mazin! We'd like to hire a boat.
Mazin: OK. But fishing is dangerous. Have you got everything?
Khalid: I think so.
Mazin: What will you do if the boat sinks?
Ahmad: If the boat sinks, we'll swim.
Mazin: Yes, but you'll need these life jackets.
Ahmad: Oh, yes. Thanks.
Mazin: What will you do if you get lost?
Khalid: If we get lost, we'll use a compass.
Mazin: Right. Here you are. One compass.
Khalid: Thanks.
Mazin: Now, what will you do if the motor stops?
Ahmad: If the motor stops, we'll row.
Mazin: OK. So you'll need oars, won't you?
Ahmad: Oh, yes.

Mazin: Right. One pair of oars. I think you'll be safe now.
Khalid: How much is that, Mazin?
Mazin: Let me see ... Well, if you take me fishing, I'll give you everything free.
Khalid: Fantastic! Let's go!

Saeed: No, she didn’t.
Mum: Oh, no!
Saeed: What’s the matter, Mum?
Mum: The bathroom!
Saeed: What about the bathroom?
Mum: I’ve filled the bath with very hot water.
Saeed: I’ll go and look.
Mum: Run! Run!
Saeed: I’ve got her, Mum. She’s OK.

Track 43

Nader, his wife, Huda, and their son, Fareed, are driving to the beach. Listen to their conversation.

Nader: That man! He didn’t look!
Huda: Nader, you ARE driving very fast. It’s dangerous. Drive carefully, please.
Nader: I AM driving carefully. It’s the other drivers.
Huda: Nader, please drive slowly. If you don’t, we'll have an accident.
Nader: Oh, all right.
Huda: Fareed.
Fareed: Yes, Mum.
Huda: Are you wearing your seat belt?
Fareed: No, Mum. I don’t need it.
Huda: Yes, you do. Now, put it on. Nader! Be careful!
Nader: What’s the matter?
Huda: Those two boys! They’re riding on the wrong side of the road.
Nader: It’s OK. I’ve seen them. And one of them isn’t holding the handlebars.
Fareed: Dad, why have you stopped?
Nader: It’s a zebra crossing, Fareed. And that old man wants to cross the road. You see?
Fareed: Oh, yes.
Huda: Nader! That boy!
Huda: They don’t think. Right, Nader. Nice and slowly. If you drive slowly, we’ll still get to the beach in time for lunch.
Fareed: Can I have a pizza?
Huda: Yes, Fareed. You can have a pizza.

Track 44

Listen to the first part of the story and talk about what you think happens next.

It was a lovely, sunny day. The sea was calm and quiet. Tom and Dave decided to go fishing. When they got to the boat, they put the oars, their food and water into it.
'Where’s your life jacket?' asked Tom.
'It’s at home,' said Dave. 'I forgot it.'
'If you don’t have a life jacket, you won’t come in my boat,' said Tom.
'Don’t be silly,' replied Dave. 'I won’t need it. The weather is beautiful.'
'I don’t like it,' said Tom. 'The weather can change.'

Track 45

Listen, read and answer the questions.

It was a lovely, sunny day. The sea was calm and quiet. Tom and Dave decided to go fishing. When they got to the boat, they put the oars, their food and water into it.
'Where’s your life jacket?' asked Tom.
'It’s at home,' said Dave. 'I forgot it.'

'Don’t be silly,' replied Dave. 'I won’t need it. The weather is beautiful.'
'I don’t like it,' said Tom. 'The weather can change.'

Then they got into the boat, started the motor and set off. They had a good morning’s fishing. Early in the afternoon, the sky got black and dark.
'I don’t like that sky,' said Tom. 'We’re going home.'
'I agree,' said Dave. 'Start the motor.'
But the motor wouldn’t start. They got out the oars and tried to row, but the wind got stronger and stronger and the waves got bigger and bigger. Suddenly, a huge wave lifted the boat up and turned it over. Tom and Dave found themselves in the water.
'Hang on, Dave,' shouted Tom. 'I’m coming!' Tom reached Dave and pulled him over to the upturned boat. They held onto the boat and waited for help.
About three hours later, they heard a noise and looked up. There was a coastguard helicopter in the sky above them. Soon they were in it. They sat there, cold and wet, wrapped in blankets.
'Thanks, Tom,' said Dave. 'You saved my life.'
'That’s all right,' said Tom. 'But next time you come in my boat, you’ll wear a life jacket.'
'Yes, of course I will,' said Dave. 'But how did they know where to look for us?'

Track 48

On the radio, some people are talking about Our World Today. Listen.

Speaker 1: So, I think we are very lucky to be living in the 21st century. Think of all the things we have that our parents and grandparents didn't have. We can buy food from all over the world, for example.

Speaker 2: But today, some of the food we get is not good for us. I've stopped eating meat, for example. I don't think it's safe.

Speaker 3: Yes, that's true. We don't eat beef now and my children are very upset because they loved burgers.

Speaker 1: What about transport? Today, we can travel all over our own country in cars instead of having to walk or ride camels or horses. And we can travel anywhere in the world quickly and easily by plane. My parents never went outside Libya.

Speaker 2: Yes, but look at all the accidents we have!

Speaker 3: And cars make us lazy. Nobody wants to walk anywhere these days.

Speaker 1: Well, you can't find anything wrong with all the information we can get today, on television and the Internet. And you don't have to go outside your own home! I think it's fantastic! And it's very good for children. They can learn so much.

Speaker 2: But look at all the programmes on television that are not good for children. And the Internet is even worse! I'd rather my children read books.

Speaker 1: Well, you can always switch off the television. And what about the telephone, and especially mobile phones? You have to admit that they're amazing! We can telephone anyone anywhere from anywhere.

Speaker 3: But I've read that mobile phones are dangerous – especially to children. It's radiation, I think.

Speaker 1: Oh, I don't believe it! There's something wrong with everything that's new.

Track 49

Listen to a story and number the pictures in the correct order.

When John opened his eyes this morning, the sun was shining brightly. He felt great. He jumped out of bed and got dressed quickly. Then he had breakfast. After that, he said 'Goodbye' to his wife and walked slowly to the bus stop. On the way, he smiled at everybody he met. 'Good morning. Lovely day!' he said. Suddenly, in a shop window, he saw this advertisement:

Special offer! Cheap trips to India!

'India! I've always wanted to go there,' John thought and he began to dream about elephants and tigers. He forgot all about his bus. When he turned round, the bus was moving away from the stop. He ran after it shouting, but the driver did not stop. 'Oh, dear. Now I'll be late for work,' John thought sadly. 'Some days begin better than they finish.'

Components of English for Libya, Preparatory 2

- Course Book
- Workbook
- Teacher’s Book
- Audio

The Course Book presents new language and provides opportunities to practise English language and 21st Century Skills using a wide variety of reading and listening materials. Reading texts include websites, emails, articles, leaflets, reports with graphs and tables, guidebooks and advertisements. The students listen to dialogues, talks, phone calls, news items and discussions. The topics featured reflect the age and interest of the students and draw upon their knowledge and experience of the world.

The Course Book also includes a list of Key Words, which provides definitions and phonetic transcriptions of the most important vocabulary used in the course.

The Workbook contains stimulating activities to consolidate vocabulary and grammar, develop phonic awareness and practise the four skills. The students have the opportunity to personalize the language presented in the Course Book, take part in communicative speaking activities and carry out structured writing tasks and project work.

The Teacher’s Book contains an introduction with practical advice and procedures for using the course effectively. The underlying methodology is explained, and the teaching techniques used in the course are highlighted. Step-by-step procedures for individual lessons provide a solid framework for lesson preparation.

The Audio extracts comprise recordings of all the listening texts, exercises and phonic work in the Course Book and Workbook.
